

Sunday
10:00 Breaking of Bread
11:15 Morning Service
18:30 Evening Service

Monday
14:30 Ladies Meeting
20:00 Bible Study

Tuesday
10:00 & 18:00
Indoor Bowls

Wednesday
Food Bank

Thursday
18:00 Pathfinders
19:30 Midweek Meeting

Friday
Food Bank
18:00 Pathos

First Thursday of the Month
10:00 Coffee and Chat

Easter Service
There will be a special service
on the evening of Easter
Sunday which will take a form of a guest service. More details will follow in the run up
to Easter.

Where in the World is Gerard?
Gerard travels to Guatemala
this month, then on to Mexico.

Our Church weekend away at Bassenfell is almost upon us.
Please get your booking forms
in soon to guarantee you a place.

In our evening services, we begin a series looking at 1
John. Graham will be opening
this series on the 4th, and then
Alan Coyle will bring us
chapter 2 on the 11th.

Sunday
10:00 Breaking of Bread
11:15 Morning Service
18:30 Evening Service

Monday
14:30 Ladies Meeting
20:00 Bible Study

Tuesday
10:00 & 18:00
Indoor Bowls

Wednesday
Food Bank

Thursday
18:00 Pathfinders
19:30 Midweek Meeting

Friday
Food Bank
18:00 Pathos

First Thursday of the Month
10:00 Coffee and Chat

Easter Service
There will be a special service
on the evening of Easter
Sunday which will take a form
of a guest service. More details will follow in the run up
to Easter.

Where in the World is Gerard?
Gerard travels to Guatemala
this month, then on to Mexico.

Our Church weekend away at
Bassenfell is almost upon us.
Please get your booking forms
in soon to guarantee you a
place.

In our evening services, we
begin a series looking at 1
John. Graham will be opening
this series on the 4th, and then
Alan Coyle will bring us
chapter 2 on the 11th.

March 2018

Be Kind

I saw something the other day that said, “In a society where it is possible to be anything, be kind!” I like that — be kind.

“A man who is kind benefits himself, but a cruel man hurts himself” (Proverbs 11:17, ESV).

As Christians we often talk about the free will that God gives us. Oft times, we talk about that and how evil people use their free will to do evil things. We do not have to look around us very long before we see examples of that. I think we could profitably look at the other side of the argument.

If we truly have free will, and we do, then we should use our freedom to be good people. We should be people who do good things; people who are kind to others.

One of the first impressions a visitor to our services gets is how they are greeted by members of the congregation. And that impression will influence their decision to come back or not. My first impression of Hebron was how friendly people were and how kind everybody was.

Of course, being friendly and kind should not be something that we do with ulterior motives. We should be friendly and kind all the time.

My challenge — am I the same person when I am at church as when I am out in the local community? Am I that same person when I am behind closed doors at home?

I really can choose to be anything. I want to choose to be kind. - Colin Vine

“Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamour and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you”
Ephesians 4:31, 32, ESV).

March 2018

Be Kind

I saw something the other day that said, “In a society where it is possible to be anything, be kind!” I like that — be kind.

“A man who is kind benefits himself, but a cruel man hurts himself” (Proverbs 11:17, ESV).

As Christians we often talk about the free will that God gives us. Oft times, we talk about that and how evil people use their free will to do evil things. We do not have to look around us very long before we see examples of that. I think we could profitably look at the other side of the argument.

If we truly have free will, and we do, then we should use our freedom to be good people. We should be people who do good things; people who are kind to others.

One of the first impressions a visitor to our services gets is how they are greeted by members of the congregation. And that impression will influence their decision to come back or not. My first impression of Hebron was how friendly people were and how kind everybody was.

Of course, being friendly and kind should not be something that we do with ulterior motives. We should be friendly and kind all the time.

My challenge — am I the same person when I am at church as when I am out in the local community? Am I that same person when I am behind closed doors at home?

I really can choose to be anything. I want to choose to be kind. - Colin Vine

“Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamour and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you”
Ephesians 4:31, 32, ESV).